Privacy Statement

WorkCover NSW respects your privacy and is committed to protecting your personal information. We collect your personal information to provide our services to you, to improve the quality of our services and to provide you with information about other services we offer. We will assume that we have your permission to do this unless you tell us otherwise. You can do this at any time by contacting the Business Assistance Hotline 13 10 50. Further information on our privacy policy is available at www.workcover.nsw.gov.au

Please note: Using this free and confidential Workplace Advisory Visit employers can be given advice about hazard management and occupational health and safety management issues. Any advice given to you by a Business Advisory Officer is given only to assist and does not relieve you of your obligations under the various occupational health and safety and workers compensation legislation that WorkCover NSW administers. To ensure you comply with your legal obligations you must refer to the appropriate Acts.

The visits are targeted at small to medium sized businesses and a Business Advisory Officer cannot issue any improvement, prohibition or penalty notices and are only advisory in nature. Identified hazards and risks will not, as a rule, be referred to the WorkCover Inspectorate. However, possible enforcement action by WorkCover may result if situations arise where serious hazards and risks not addressed appropriately will be referred to WorkCover Inspectorate who has the authority to take enforcement action.

For further information and conditions regarding our Workplace Advisory Visits, please visit our Safety for Small Business link on the website at www.workcover.nsw.gov.au
